Join us for a fun-filled educational event at the Kingsland Manor!

This class will introduce you to the creative world of floral design using New Jersey grown flowers. You'll learn the basic elements and principles of floral design and leave with a beautiful arrangement worth $85 in a shop along with the knowledge you need to create your own designs.

Coffee, doughnuts, and fruit will be provided.

Space is limited to the first 20 who register. Once the seats are sold out, we encourage you to put your name on a waiting list in case a spot opens up. Those who remain on the waiting list will be contacted if the workshop is offered again.
