

HOPE for Nutley sponsors its first annual Candlelight Vigil
“Let HOPE Light the Way”
on October 24th

Are you stressed or struggling? Does your life at times feel out of control? Have you or anyone you know experienced difficult times recently?

If the answer is yes or you would like to support someone in need, come spend an hour to wind down and be part of HOPE for Nutley’s first annual Candlelight Vigil, “Let HOPE Light the Way” on Wednesday, October 24th at John Walker Middle School lawn at 6:30 pm. This event will be held rain or shine.

All residents are invited to join together in an hour of inspirational readings and music on the importance of mindfulness during stressful times. “Let HOPE Light the Way” as we, as a community, join together to promote camaraderie and to support all in attendance.

The HOPE for Nutley initiative is under the direction of Commissioner Alphonse Petracco and the Department of Public Safety. Any questions can be directed to 973-284-4929.
