

THE NUTLEY HISTORICAL SOCIETY
presents

*Lost and Found Nutley:
The Forgotten Photographs of*
N. F. CARRYL

Nineteenth-century glass-plate negatives, rescued from a Newark second-hand shop a half century ago, have been brought to light in this unique exhibit. N. F. Carryl's intimate and beautiful turn-of-the-century portraits of Nutley focus on the Kingsland farm and its extended family.

Exhibit opens on Sunday, September 15, 2019
12:00–5:00

Nutley Historical Society
65 Church Street • Nutley, NJ

Gallery talk by Town Historian John Demmer at 1:00.

The exhibit will be open Tuesday evenings,
6:00 to 8:00, from September 17 to October 15.

Exhibit closes on Saturday, October 19
12:00–5:00

Gallery talk by Town Historian John Demmer at 1:00.

“Lost and Found Nutley,” a joint effort of the Nutley Historical Society and Town Historian John Demmer, is made possible through the generous support of Silas Mountsier.